

CRPS Programme Day 2

Session	Time	Theme/ Title	Speaker
	07:15-08:15	Wellness Window: Further details TBC
Session 6	08:30-10:30	Theme: Putting Technology to Work
	08:30-09:05	Peripheral nerve stimulation: what is new, and how can we perform meaningful trials to find out what is relevant?	Prof. Konstantin Slavin, University of Illinois Hospital and Health Sciences System
	09:05-09:40	Neuromodulation and CRPS: what direction should we go?	Matthew. F. Thomas, General Manager & Vice-President, Stim and Early Interventions, Medtronic
	09:40-10:15	What role does Interventional medicine have in CRPS?	Prof. Frank Hugyen, University Hospital Rotterdam, The Netherlands
	10:15-10:30	Q&A
	10:30-11:00	Network & Coffee
Session 7	11:00-12:45	Understanding the Bioscience
	11:00-11:25	Treating the immune system in patients with persistent CRPS: are we breaking through? The Immune system in CRPS: The "Holy Grail" or a poisoned chalice ?	Dr. Andreas Gobel, The Walton Centre Liverpool/ University of Liverpool
	11:25-11:50	Latest findings of immune mechanisms in CRPS and CRPS models/ Are we any closer to unlocking the Mystery of CRPS?	Prof. Frank Birklein, University Medical Centre Mainz, Germany
	11:50-12:15	Does bisphosphonate treatment hold the key?	Prof. Norman Harden, Rehabilitation Institute of Chicago
	12:15-12:30	Q&A
	12:30-13:30	Lunch
Session 8	12:45-14:30
	12:45-13:30	Lunch Symposium
	13:30-14:30	The SIG CRPS Top 5: Oral Poster presentations (10 min each)	Dr. Lone Kusden, Spinal Cord Injury Centre of Western Denmark/Danish Pain Research Center
Session 9	14:30-16:30
	14:30 -15:30	Pro v Con debate. Key note speakers will debate: Therapy Resistant CRPS: to Amputate or Not?	Dr. Andreas Gobel, The Walton Centre Liverpool/ University of Liverpool
	15:30- 16:00	The Golden Nuggets of Cork 2017! Conference overview	Dr. Lone Kusden, Spinal Cord Injury Centre of Western Denmark/Danish Pain Research Center
	16:00- 16:30	Closing Comments & Prize Giving	Dr.Dominic Hegarty, Cork University Hospital